- * Previous winner of HIA Home of the Year
- * Beautiful timber features throughout
- * High Ceilings with Suspended Staircase

It's the next best position to being right on the beachfront? It's just across the road on popular Reid Road and for you, it's beach house blues no more!

New to the market and occupying a corner allotment, this architecturally designed beach house was built in 2004 and had the prestigious honour of winning HIA's "Home of the Year" award and upon inspection, you'll see why.

Impressive open plan design with high ceilings - The entire home is almost revealed when you walk through those front doors off the deck.

The lower level occupies the living area, kitchen with New Guinea Rosewood, 3 bedrooms and a main bathroom. There's polished timber on the floor and a feature staircase that takes you up to the master bedroom. It has its own deck with great breezes and ocean glimpses and a private ensuite.

There's a fenced area to keep pets contained on the side and YES - Room for a pool at the front and the boat in the garage with high clearance roller door.

Tenanted until September 2020, inspections welcome by appointment.
