Small Acreage Mission Beach Village !

- * Just minutes from Mission Beach Village
- * The beach is just down the road
- * Queenslander charm
- * Double shed storage

On the edge of Mission Beach Village, across the road from Clump Point Jetty is this charming Queenslander on half an acre. Lush established tropical gardens surround the home which has two large undercover areas to relax out of the sun and rain.

The large lounge room with french doors and windows has traditional slate floors and a separate family / TV area. The kitchen is equipped with a gas stove and plenty of storage space.

Two bedrooms and an office area are located on privately down a separate hallway - both rooms are air conditioned with fans.

The bathroom has been modernised and is fresh and spacious. And, there's also a sunroom off this area with access to the rear terrace.

A large two bay shed is perfect to store your caravan or boat. One thing you will need though is a ride on mower to keep the lawns maintained.

The home is available now - inspections welcome at any time. Just give us a call :)
