With the limited amount of beachfront stock now available on the market, this cute beach shack on Banfield Parade will certainly appeal to those who won't compromise on an ocean frontage location with uninterrupted ocean and island views.

You'll love your new local beach across the road - With a custom made timber seat under shady trees and kilometers of beach to walk in either direction with Dunk Island framed in the background. You'll also get to experience the water taxi zipping across to Dunk Island with their office located just a few doors down. Such a central location with local cafes, restaurants, primary school and Woolworths Shopping centre all within walking distance.

This pre-loved beach shack is just what you would expect it to be - Basic yet solid and full of character with its open plan design and tongue and groove walls. Polish it up and turn it into your beach escape!
