Barefoot on Bedarra . . . the name of this unique hideaway is personified in it's title ! It's a beachcomber's life on this island sanctuary where the villa, designed by photographer Peter Lik with architect Chris Van Dyke this tri hexagon timber dwellings sits in a tropical rainforest on 3000m2 with views over the Coral Sea, Dunk and Family Islands.

This villa is luxurious but has an absolute sense of calm, which sets the scene for your time in this tropical. A path leading up through the rainforest leads you up to the dwelling where the views will astound you. The main dwelling encompasses the kitchen and dining room equipped with all the essentials should you wish to cater for yourself The main bedroom with a king sized elevated bed where you'll awake to memorable sunrises is also located on this level with a separate studio with a queen bed a mere 50m above the main dwelling – both where you can indulge in the indoor / outdoor bathrooms.

You can choose to do a lot here or a lot of nothing . . . and with that outlook it's a difficult decision I can tell you ! Swim in your own plunge pool, laze on private beaches with a picnic lunch, snorkel with turtles and tropical fish, whale watch from your deck, meditate with a yoga session or enjoy sunset cocktails. A trip to the reef can be arranged as well as scenic helicopter tours.

While the villa is off grid – power provided by solar and rain or filtered spring water – you still have full access to WIFI through your phone and television, if you even want to join the 21st century while on this escape !

Your holiday can be fully catered or you can provide your own provisions which need to be bought over from the mainland. All linen and towels are supplied.

A limousine service can be arranged from Cairns Airport to the transfer boat and onto the island.

Now, all you have to do is set aside your travel dates and call Candice to arrange your holiday for you !
