32 Campbell Tce, South Mission Beach

A Tropically Inspired Home !

- * Private and tranquil
- * Ocean and hinterland views
- * Two separate living quarters
- * A tropical lifestyle home

If you're looking for something a bit different, then this tropically inspired home will definitely be worth an inspection with it's commanding views of the Coral Sea and Dunk Island to the east and the Hull River and national parkland to the west.

There are so many different areas and levels in this home where you can escape depending on your mood - there are three balconies and half a dozen different garden nooks where you can relax and just remember why you actually made the move to Mission Beach in the first place - to have and enjoy time !

Winding stepped paths welcome you into the home and meander down the side of the property. Glass sliding doors and windows surround the rooms filling them with light and the mood of the day ! On the first level is an open plan living area encompassing a kitchen/dining/lounge along with a master bedroom and bathroom. A balcony surrounds the living area and kitchen area.

Downstairs is the second living area with a kitchen/dining/lounge room and balcony, two further bedrooms which share a bathroom and the main laundry. With access directly out to the garden from this level, you'll love the natural waterfall and outdoor deck seating. A pathway leads you down to an under house storage area and further onto a workshop with a deck and level grassed area.
