We are pleased to announce that this classic three-bedroom, one-bathroom home has been successfully sold off-market. Featuring beautiful wooden floorboards that exude warmth and character, this older-designed residence was a hidden gem in a desirable location.

Set on a spacious lot and fully screened with air conditioning, the home offered convenience and comfort within walking distance of the town center. The expansive deck, elevated to capture lovely breezes, provided an ideal setting for outdoor relaxation and entertainment.

With a generous yard perfect for activities and personal touches, this charming property attracted attention and quickly found its new owners. If you are interested in similar opportunities in the future, please feel free to reach out for more information.
