There are three bedrooms and two bathrooms. The rooms are screened and have fans as well. Just off the kitchen is the laundry with lots of storage space - which could also double as a pantry if required.

The carport is connected to the home so no chance of getting the groceries wet on those rainy days and for additional storage, there is a shed at the rear of the property as well. The established gardens have beautiful shady trees and there's ample room for that herb garden or cubby house if that's on your wish list as well.
